

Speaker 1:

I nominated Suzi for this award because she's a kind, considerate, hardworking, dedicated team manager.

Speaker 2:

She's good at what she does, and I think what I like about her, she's a driven manager. She wants to get things done.

Speaker 1:

Suzi is quite funny. She's very funny actually. She's very caring. She's got such a motherly nature to her.

Speaker 2:

We work in a very challenging environment, and when you have a very supportive manager, it makes a big difference. She's there at the end of the call, whenever I'm in trouble in the community working with the families. If I call, she'll pick up the call and she'll give me direction.

Speaker 1:

She keeps us as a team quite stable. We hardly have practitioners leaving our team. She's always taking the time out of her day to speak to us, to check in, to make sure that we are doing okay, that we feel safe, and that we have everything that we need to be able to carry out our day-to-day tasks as social workers.

Speaker 2:

Well, I would like to say a very big congratulations on this achievement. I know you deserve it because you're such a very supportive manager.

Speaker 1:

I hope you really enjoy the rest of your day celebrating and the rest of the year, because I know you're not going to stop celebrating once you get this award.
